

Concrete form work (a concrete cost line item) and access scaffolding (a general condition cost line item) must be planned together for maximum productivity and safety. STUFORM® and JUMPFORM concrete wall form work along with 20K® shoring towers were supported by custom-designed support frames for construction of the air traffic control tower at Washington Dulles Airport, VA. Photo courtesy of Harsco Infrastructure.